Robertson-Gunter Wedding Solemnized Thursday Morning.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gunter, when Miss Marie Woodville Gunter became the wife of Mr. Thurman Harold Robertson.

Elaborate decorations of white, pink and green were used throughout the lower floor. The imprisoned altar was gracefully arranged with ferns, lilies of the valley, palms and huge bows of tulle. The hall and dining room were attractive with sweet peas and pink hydrangeas. The stairway was wreathed in smilax and bows of tulle. The whole scene being elaborately artistic.

Miss Mae Gunter and Miss Sue Mae Lincoln ushered the guests in while Miss Grace Lawrence and Miss Edith McGeorge served punch. Miss Maggie Franklin sang a beautiful love song "At Dawning," which was followed by "All For You." Mrs. Jack Bew at the piano, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march, which announced the arrival of the bride party. The bridesmaids, Miss Leon Gunter and Miss Louise Gunter, of Denver entered singly. Then little Eleanor Frances Wilson, ring-bearer, in a dainty dress of finest white organdy and lace, entered carrying the ring in the heart of a calla lily. Miss Susie Will Gunter, maid of honor, came next. The bride entered on the arm of her father, while Mr. Robertson and his best man, Mr. John Robertson, of Uniontown, Ala., met them at the altar. The words of the marriage service were impressively said by Rev. W. L. Duren, pastor of the First Methodist church and the ring ceremony was used.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor wore exquisite frocks of white organdy lace, trimmed with girdles of Nile green, and carried bows of pink sweet peas tied with tulle. Miss Gunter was a charming bride in her traveling suit of Copenhagen blue taffeta with which she wore an embroidered georgette waist and carried Killarney roses with a shower of valley lilies.

The bride is a girl very much beloved by all who know her both young and old. She was a graduate of the 1916 class at the I. L. and C., and is one of the most cultured and attractive girls of our city.

Mr. Robertson is a young man highly esteemed in business, social and religious circles of Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left for New Orleans and other points on the southern coast.

Pretty Roberta Is Given By Miss Roberta Hays.

Miss Roberta Hays entertained charmingly on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hays.

Sweet peas and sunflowers added to the beauty of the rooms.

Those who were invited were: Misses Katherine Beard, Cecelia Slack, Maurice Kaufman, Lillian Curtis, Nell Kennedy, Jane Terry, Louise Frierson, Mary Ezell, Grace Morris, Margie Morris, Virginia Wilkinson, Antoinette Walker, Frances Ottley, Mary Hays; Messrs. Percy Maer, John MacLachlan, John Beard, William Beard, Battle Bell, Harry Dashiell, Allen Walker, Walter Beard, Merritt Beard, Jacob Simon, Jack Walker and Aaron Hahn.

Missionary Society Entertains In Compliment to Visitors.

Mrs. Anna McGinnis Sykes, of Kiangyin, China, and her daughter, Miss Anna Murdock Sykes, were delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by the members of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church. After the business session Mrs. Sykes gave an interesting talk on the habits and customs of the Orient. Miss Sykes sang several charming Chinese songs. Miss Mary Lou Peyton sang. Mrs. Marshall presented Mrs. Sykes and Miss Sykes on behalf of the society, huge bunches of sweet peas.

Refreshments were served those present later in the evening.

An honor worthy bestowed was the election of Miss Mary Govan Billups as state vice-regent by the Mt. Vernon Association of Women at their annual meeting last month. Miss Billups is one of the most brilliant and capable women in our state and will fill the place with dignity and honor.

Auction Club Members Meet With Miss Billups.

The Auction Bridge Club members were delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon by Miss Mary Govan Billups.

Hydrangeas and daisies were beautifully arranged in the reception rooms. The prizes were lovely mahogany candle sticks with colored shades and were won by Mrs. Sid Street, Jr., and Mrs. Arthur Martin, the former winning the club prize and the latter the guest prize.

After the games a delicious salad course with an ice course were served the sixteen guests who enjoyed the delightful affair.

Mrs. Owen Entertains Members of Bridge Club.

A delightful affair of Thursday was the party given by Mrs. B. L. Owen to the members of the West End Bridge Club.

Decorations of lilies, nasturtiums, sweet peas and black-eyed Susans were effectively used in the rooms. After the games an ice course was served.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Owen's hospitality were: Mrs. J. T. Sanford, Mrs. Charles Frierson, Mrs. W. C. Watson, Mrs. Jamie Carr, Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mrs. G. M. Flynn, Mrs. Charles Hays, Mrs. Ira L. Gaston, Mrs. Coleman Hamilton, Mrs. McQueen and Mrs. F. C. Owen.

Bright Little Boy Is Called Away.

Hundreds of friends in Columbus and over the state sympathize with Hon. and Mrs. H. L. Whitfield in the death of their bright little son, Henry Louis, Jr., which occurred on Wednesday afternoon.

"Son," as he was familiarly known, was an exceptional child, his love for the beautiful was unusually manifested in a child so young. He was loved by all, both young and old, especially the children of the Model school, and the teachers and pupils of the I. L. and C.

Twentieth Century Club Members to Entertain.

The members of the Twentieth Century Club will entertain on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at cards. Those on the reception committee are: Miss Frances Dashiell, chairman; Miss Harriet Wood, Miss Louise Wood, Miss Jennie Sharp, Miss Cornelia Hudson, Miss Lucile Kaye, Miss Fannie Moore Evans, Miss Annie Stephenson and Miss Emma Bell.

Informal Reception Given For Attractive Visitor.

Miss Nina Battle Bell entertained on Tuesday afternoon informally in compliment to Miss Katherine Peek, of Moline, Ill.

In the reception rooms were exquisite decorations of carnations and beautiful gladioli, and made a pretty setting for the many handsomely gowned girls who called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whitfield and children left on yesterday morning for Hattiesburg to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Gason. Later they will go to North Carolina.

Misses Fannie P. Hooper, Mary M. Savage, Frances Bishop, Allie Stevens, and Kerby Ferguson leave today for Burlington, Vt., where they will spend the summer.

The celebration of Flag Day by the Daughters of the American Revolution was well carried out. Most of the homes and business houses hung out their flags.
